Each student is to read at least two (2) books from their respective list. Each student should keep a journal log while reading the books: review the book in writing by discussing who the main characters are, the theme, key experiences of the main characters, and give a personal opinion about the book by referring to examples and quotes to support why you think it is an interesting book or not. At the end of each log, make sure to answer these two questions in detail: Would you recommend it to a friend? Why or why not? Come to class prepared to share your writing.
